If any dates between now and the playoffs get rained out we will try to add them onto the end of the season. If we get a lot of bac weather and games get rained out then we may have to adjust the schedule. If you have any questions about the playoff system feel free to email me back or talk to me at the fields. Thanks.

We will not be having any Coed games on Monday, October 13 due to no teams being/wanting to play do to the Browns game. So the schedule for the rest of the regular season, excluding the games scheduled for this week, and the playoffs are below. All this is based on having no more rainouts. If we get more rainouts, things will likely get pushed back. Thanks.
